GALLAGHER-IBA ARENA

A standing-room only crownd of 13,611 witnessed OSU's contest Oklahoma on Jan. 12, 2008.

In 2024-25, for the 85th season overall and the 49th in women's basketball, the home of Oklahoma State University will be storied in Gallagher-Iba Arena. Despite undergoing a dramatic renovation that doubled its size, the venerable arena still provides an up-close view from any seat in the house, helping to give OSU a tremendous home-court advantage.

The historic building underwent a massive $55 million construction project that was completed in 2000 and is part of the new OSU Athletics Center. Its 13,611-seat capacity allows more O-State fans to enjoy OSU athletics events, and the auxiliary facilities are second to none in the region.

Originally named Gallagher Hall after OSU's fabled wrestling coach Ed Gallagher, the Board of Regents honored legendary Cowboy basketball coach Henry Iba when the arena we remodeled in 1987, and his name was added to the arena's title.

Gallagher served as OSU's wrestling coach from 1916-40. In his 23 years, OSU won 11 national team titles and compiled a 138-5-4 dual record. Gallagher was also an outstanding athlete while attending Oklahoma State. He was captain of the track team for three years, and his 99-yard run against Kansas State in 1908 will always stand as the longest football run in school history.

Iba, who passed away in January 1993, was a coaching giant in the sport of basketball. He coached in 1,105 collegiate games, and his 767 career wins rank eighth all-time. Iba served as coach and athletic director at OSU from 1935 to '70, and in those 36 seasons, posted a 655-316 record while guiding the Cowboys to 13 league championships, eight NCAA appearances and the 1945 and 1946 NCAA Championships.

Along with the expansion of the historic arena, the new Athletics Center has many features. A total of 14 luxury suites stretch across the west side of the facility, overlooking both the basketball court and the football field. Banners signifying the success of Oklahoma State Athletics are hung from the rafters. The pride of OSU athletic triumphs are also illustrated in photographic and trophy displays in the new Heritage Hall.

Even after two major construction projects, today's players still compete on the gym's original white maple floor, which was the country's most expensive when it was installed in 1938 at a cost of $1.5 million. National powers Oklahoma State and Kansas opened the facility on Dec. 9 in a game that matched coaching legends Henry Iba and Phog Allen. OSU won that game, 21-15.

Since beginning play in the building during the 1975-76season, the Cowgirls have posted three undefeated seasons at home. Reaching the mark with an 8-0 mark in 1975-76, finishing 13-0 during the 1990-91 season and tallying a 12-0 record during the 1993-94 season. Overall, OSU has won 67 percent of its games in the arena.

In addition, the Cowgirls' road to their first NCAA Sweet 16 appearance was paved with a pair of NCAA victories in the venue, including a thrilling triple-overtime win over Michigan State in the second round of the 1991 tournament. OSU set a then-school record with 14 wins during the 2007-08 season en route to its second Sweet 16 season.

On Jan. 12, 2008, a standing-room only crowd of 13,611 witnessed OSU's 82-63 victory over in-state rival Oklahoma. The sellout crowd marked the largest crowd ever for a women's game in the state of Oklahoma. Andrea Riley poured in 45 points in the win over the Sooners, establishing a new Cowgirl record for points scored in a game in the historic building.

The 2010-11 season saw OSU eclipse its single-season mark for home wins with 15 before shattering the record with 18 home victories the following season.

In 2015-16, OSU posted a 16-1 mark on its home floor.

FACILITIES

In addition to competing inside one of the nation's most historic venues, the Cowgirls now reside in one of the finest locker room facilities in all of college basketball. The Cowgirls moved into their new living space for the 2011-12 campaign. OSU's new home houses both necessities and amenities. The facility includes a team film room and meeting area; a lounge area as well as a kitchen and sitting area. Additionally, the Cowgirls now have a spacious new locker room equipped with a state-of-the-art shower facility and two whirlpool tubs.

University President

On April 2, 2021, the OSU/A&M Board of Regents selected Dr. Kayse Shrum as the 19th president of Oklahoma State University. A native Oklahoman, President Shrum earned her doctor of osteopathic medicine degree from the OSU College of Osteopathic Medicine and has completed executive leadership and management training programs at Harvard University and Stanford University.

In 2013, Dr. Shrum was named president of OSU Center for Health Sciences (OSU-CHS), becoming the youngest and first female president and dean of a medical school in the state of Oklahoma. She joined the OSU-CHS medical school faculty in 2002. In 2011, she was named provost of OSU-CHS and dean of the OSU College of Osteopathic Medicine and served in that capacity until her promotion to president in 2013. Dr. Shrum holds the George Kaiser Family Foundation Chair in Medical Excellence and Service and the Saint Francis Health System Endowed Chair of Pediatrics. In March 2019, Oklahoma Governor Kevin Stitt appointed her to his Cabinet as Secretary of Science and Innovation. During her time in the Cabinet, she led Oklahoma's rapid response in COVID-19 testing expansion across the state and advised state leadership on COVID medical and protocol guidance.

Under her leadership, OSU-CHS experienced unprecedented growth. Student enrollment more than doubled as new academic programs were established to meet the healthcare workforce needs of Oklahoma. She also spearheaded the construction of the A.R. and Marylouise Tandy Medical Academic Building, a state-of-the-art learning facility that houses Oklahoma's largest and most technologically advanced hospital simulation center.

A strong supporter of collaborative partnerships, Dr. Shrum worked with Cherokee Nation Principal Chief Bill John Baker and his administration to establish the nation's first tribally affiliated medical school, the OSU College of Osteopathic Medicine at the Cherokee Nation, which opened in fall 2020. Most recently, Dr. Shrum helped secure a landmark investment from Purdue Pharma in the amount of $197.5 million to create a center of excellence in addiction treatment and studies to address the opioid addiction epidemic in Oklahoma — the National Center for Wellness and Recovery.

During her tenure, she made addressing the health care workforce shortage in rural Oklahoma a top priority for OSU-CHS. A fervent champion of rural health and primary care medicine, Dr. Shrum led the strategic efforts to create a sustainable rural primary care physician pipeline program.

Dr. Shrum launched award-winning high school recruiting programs like Operation Orange and Blue Coat to White Coat, established the Rural Medical Track curriculum, and expanded the number of residency training programs in rural Oklahoma by securing support from the Oklahoma Legislature, Oklahoma Health Care Authority and Oklahoma Tobacco Settlement Endowment Trust.

Dr. Shrum is active in a variety of charitable and professional organizations. She is a board member of the Children's Hospital Foundation at Saint Francis, Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Oklahoma, State Chamber of Oklahoma, PLICO, Oklahoma Hall of Fame, Oklahoma Foundation for Excellence, Oklahoma State University Medical Authority and Trust, Texas A&M Center for Optimizing Rural Health, and Women for OSU Council. She holds committee positions in osteopathic professional organizations including the American Association of Colleges of Osteopathic Medicines, American Osteopathic Association, and American Osteopathic Board of Pediatrics.

Chad Weiberg

Athletics Director

Chad Weiberg assumed the role of Oklahoma State Athletic Director in July of 2021 after having spent the previous four years serving as OSU's Deputy Athletic Director.

As OSU's Deputy Athletic Director, Weiberg was the chief operating officer, second-in-command and responsible for the day-to-day operations of the athletics department. He served as Athletic Director Mike Holder's administrative liaison for football and men's basketball and was responsible for football scheduling.

During his time as Deputy AD, he played a significant role in successfully navigating OSU Athletics through the COVID pandemic. Notably, he developed a partnership with the Oklahoma State University Center for Health Sciences that helped produce the planning and resources to keep Cowboy and Cowgirl student-athletes healthy, safe and ready for competition.

Weiberg was a key figure in several important initiatives that benefitted student-athletes and fans alike. A little more than one year after Weiberg's arrival, OSU added a director of counseling and sport psychology position within the athletic department to better serve the mental health of student-athletes. In 2020, Weiberg played a role in launching - and continues to serve as a member of - the Oklahoma State Athletics Council for Diversity and Inclusion.

He also played a key part in improving OSU's gameday experience. Highlights include the addition of one of the largest video boards at a college-only football stadium and the addition of alcohol sales at OSU athletic venues.

Weiberg is a 1994 OSU graduate with a bachelor of business administration degree. He earned a master's in business administration from OSU in 2002. After earning his undergraduate degree, he served as the director of corporate sales and donor relations for OSU Athletics until 1999. He served as senior director of field operations for the OSU Alumni Association from 1999-2002 before becoming the director of development for the OSU Foundation/College of Business Administration from 2002-03. He held a similar role for OSU Athletics from 2003-04 before moving to Kansas State.

At K-State, Weiberg served the KSU Foundation as Director of Corporate Relations for a year before becoming the Director of Major Gifts for K-State Athletics in 2005. Weiberg assumed the lead role for K-State Athletics' Ahearn Fund in 2009 and, for his team's efforts, was recognized as the National Fundraiser of the Year by the National Association of Athletic Development Directors in 2014. Weiberg was the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Development when he left K-State in 2015 to become Deputy Director of Athletics at Texas Tech University, a role in which he served for two years before returning to his alma mater in 2017.

College athletics have played a large role in Weiberg's life from an early age. His father, Mick, and brother, Brett were both college basketball head coaches and his brother, Jared, played basketball at OSU under Eddie Sutton for a year before moving into the role of team manager. Weiberg's uncle, Kevin, served as commissioner of the Big 12.

Weiberg and his wife, Jodi, have two children, Ella and Grant.

OKLAHOMA STATE UNIVERSITY

Oklahoma's only university with a statewide presence, Oklahoma State University is a five-campus, public educational system that improves the lives of people in Oklahoma, the nation, and the world by adhering to its land-grant mission of high-quality teaching, research and outreach.

OSU research, scholarship, and creative activities promote human and economic development through the expansion of knowledge and its application.

Established as a result of the Morrill Act, the Stillwater campus is the home of the OSU System. OSU was founded on Dec. 25, 1890, as Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College. On July 1, 1957, Oklahoma A&M College became Oklahoma State University.

The OSU System has an enrollment of more than 36,000 students across its five campuses with one of the largest freshman classes in school history expected for the fall of 2011. Named Oklahoma's inaugural Truman Honor Institution for its production of Truman Scholars, OSU today boasts students from all 50 states and nearly 120 nations. There are more than 240,000 OSU alumni throughout the world.

When it comes to outreach, OSU reaches across the state of Oklahoma. It has five campuses: Stillwater, which includes the Center for Veterinary Health Sciences; OSU-Tulsa; OSU-Oklahoma City; OSU Institute of Technology in Okmulgee; and the OSU Center for Health Sciences in Tulsa, which includes the OSU Medical Center. OSU also boasts 16 agricultural experiment stations statewide, extension offices in 76 counties, a new sensor testing facility in Ponca City, and a biosciences institute in Ardmore in partnership with the Noble Foundation.

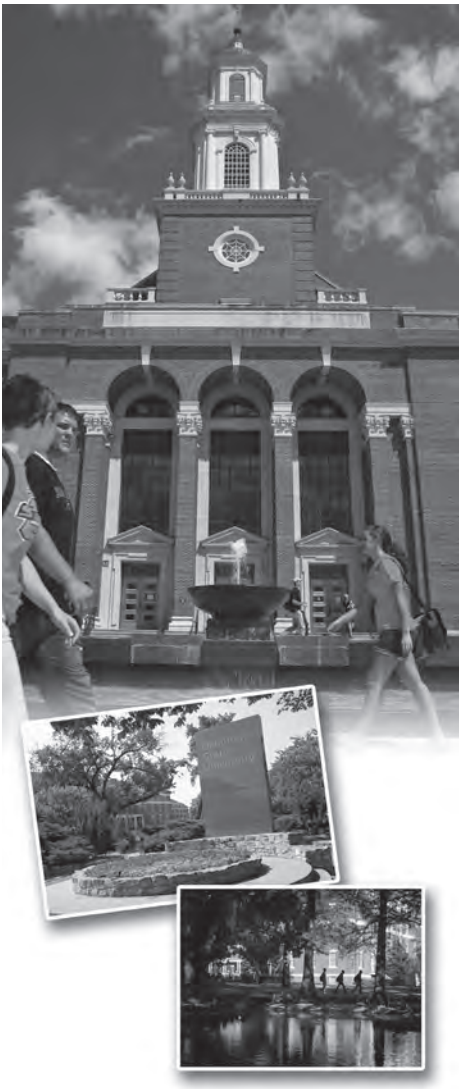
With more than 350 undergraduate and graduate degrees and options, as well as professional degree programs in medicine and veterinary medicine, OSU and its nine different colleges provide unmatched diversity of academic offerings.

OSU conducts innovative research and technology transfer that enhance Oklahoma's economic vitality and its quality of life. The focus has expanded greatly since 1890, but the third cornerstone of the university's land-grant mission remains as crucial for the future of Oklahoma as it was at statehood.

Interdisciplinary collaborations with academic institutions, government agencies, private business, and industry ensure that contributions of faculty and student researchers to the development of new knowledge and its dissemination are pertinent and lasting.

Areas of emphasis include: alternative energies and conservation; animal-based agriculture and biotechnology; environmental protection; food production and safety; health and medicine; manufacturing and advanced materials; national defense and homeland security; sensors and sensor technologies; and transportation and infrastructure.

Although OSU is a large, comprehensive university, its size does not minimize the personal attention given to each student. OSU encourages all students when they first enroll to identify the college in which they wish to major. Because the average number of students majoring in any one department is less than 150, the student can count on personal attention in a friendly environment.



OSU offers students many distinct advantages. It has more than 2 million volumes in the library; modern research laboratories and equipment; excellent physical education, recreation and student union facilities; nationally-recognized residence hall programs; outstanding cultural events; and 36 nationally-affiliated fraternities and sororities that provide a stimulating educational and social environment.

OKLAHOMA STATE UNIVERSITY

The story of Oklahoma State University began on Christmas Eve, 1890, at the McKennon Opera House in Oklahoma's territorial capital of Guthrie when Territorial Governor George W. Steele signed legislation establishing an Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College (OAMC) in Payne County.

OAMC's first students assembled for class on Dec. 14, 1891, even though there were no buildings, no books, and no curriculum. The college's first students attended classes in the Stillwater Congregational Church. The original campus consisted of 200 acres of prairie that were donated by four local homesteaders. The college's first six graduates received their diplomas in 1896.

Visitors to the OSU campus often marvel at its beauty and consistency of architecture. Much of the credit goes to legendary president, Henry G. Bennett, who served from 1928-1951. Dr. Bennett's 25-year campus master plan envisioned some of the university's most famous and beautiful structures, including the Edmon Low Library and the OSU Student Union.

A new campus master plan is guiding unprecedented construction that is making OSU more competitive in academics and athletics. Starting in the fall of 2008, OSU has opened the new Multimodal Transportation Terminal, the new North Classroom Building, the west end zone of Boone Pickens Stadium, refurbished Old Central, the Donald W. Reynolds Architecture Building and an upgraded Murray Hall. It has opened the new Henry Bellmon Research Center and is nearing completion on a major renovation of the Student Union. Hall of Fame Avenue on the north and University Avenue on the south have both been significantly upgraded, and the university has started an update to its campus landscape plan.

OSU grew quite rapidly following World War II. The post-war years were marked by a huge enrollment surge. Some graduates from that era may remember "Veteran's Village," a thriving community that developed on the northwest edge of campus as veterans and their families moved into surplus military housing provided by the college. The mid-1940s also were a golden era for athletics at Oklahoma A&M. In a 90-day period in early 1945, A&M teams won the Cotton Bowl, the NCAA championship in wrestling, and the NCAA championship in basketball. The next year, the wrestling and basketball teams repeated as national champions, and the football team won the Sugar Bowl. Coaches and players from that era are now sports legends. Coach Henry Iba set a national standard in basketball and Edward Gallagher took his wrestling teams to international prominence.

By the 1950s, the college had grown substantially. In 1957, Oklahoma A&M became The Oklahoma State University for Agriculture and Applied Science.

During the next three decades, OSU would build academic programs to match its new status. Enrollment more than doubled from 10,385 in 1957 to more than 23,000 in the 1980s. OSU became a statewide university system, adding branches in Okmulgee in 1946 and Oklahoma City in 1961. OSU merged with the Oklahoma College of Osteopathic Medicine in 1988, and OSU-Tulsa was born in 1999.

Today, OSU has more than 35,000 students across five campuses and a presence in every Oklahoma county through its extension offices and experiment stations. From six graduates in 1896, to nearly 5,000 annually today, the small college on the prairie has grown and prospered far beyond the dreams of its founders. OSU teaching, research and graduates are making a bigger impact on the lives of people around the world than ever before. It's a great time to be a Cowboy!

OSU SPIRIT

OSU PROUD

Alumni of Oklahoma State University are as loyal to their alma mater as any group in America. Just look around the Stillwater campus. OSU's director of athletics, head football coach, head wrestling coach and head baseball coach are all graduates of Oklahoma State.

Many factors contribute to the "college experience" – not the least of which is gaining a feeling of belonging and a sense of loyalty to the school, its faculty and staff, the community that embraces the university, and the athletic teams that compete to garner conference and national honors.

Wearing school colors and displaying emblems of the university are life-long symbols of allegiance. For Oklahoma State, Orange Peel and Homecoming are yearly celebrations that bring much activity and excitement.

THE COWBOY TRAIL

Dating back to the 1890s, Oklahoma A&M sports teams had been referred to as Agriculturists or Aggies, the Farmers, and officially but unpopularly, the Tigers. But by 1924 Charles Saulsberry, sports editor of the Oklahoma City Times, and other writers who regularly covered college events, had begun to refer to Stillwater's teams as the A&M Cowboys. Reporters' constant search of colorful synonyms started sprinkling Cowpokes, Pokes, Waddies, Cowpunchers and Punchers in conversation. "Cowboys" had a Southwestern flavor and flair that fit like a favorite pair of boots.

The Athletic Council authorized athletics director Edward C. Gallagher to have 2,000 balloons printed, "Oklahoma Aggies—Ride 'Em Cowboy" for sale at football games in 1926.

PISTOL PETE

(excerpt from text written by Lance Millis)

Around 1923, when Oklahoma A & M College was searching for a new mascot to replace its tiger (copied along with the school's orange and black colors, from university founders who hailed from Princeton), a group of students saw Frank Eaton leading the Armistice Day Parade. He was approached to see if he would be interested in being the model for the new mascot, and he agreed. A likeness was drawn and began to be used on sweatshirts, stickers, etc., and a tradition was born.

That caricature was the basis for what is used today as the official Oklahoma State University mascot. For 35 years, the crusty old cowboy was a living symbol of OSU, representing the colorful past of the area. As such, he would attend OSU athletic events, building dedications, etc., and sign autographs, pose for photographs and reminisce about the Old West with anyone who would listen.

To this day, his likeness is a visible reminder of the Old West to literally millions of people yearly as a symbol of colleges whose mascots pay homage to the cowboy. Each year, OSU students tryout for Pistol Pete. A panel of former "Petes" judge the tryouts and select the two best candidates based on an interview, a mime, and posing as mascot in different "game situations." The two who are selected split the approximately 500 appearances annually. These appearances include all athletic events, pep rallies, business openings, weddings, birthday parties, and public school events.

FRANK EATON - BEFORE PISTOL PETE

"My boy, may an old man's curse rest upon you, if you do not try to avenge your father...You must never stop until they are all accounted for!" These words, according to one of Eaton's many stories, were spoken by a family friend following the brutal murder of his father, and guided the formative years of Frank's life.

Born in 1860, in Hartford, Connecticut, Frank moved with his family to Kansas shortly after the close of the Civil War. When Frank was eight-years-old, his father, a former Union soldier, was shot and killed by a group of lawless former Confederates. Frank was a witness to the murder and each of the murderers' faces was imprinted in his memory.

After being challenged to avenge his father's death by Mose Beaman, (the family friend), Frank set out to learn how to handle guns. Mose gave him a gun and holster, and taught him how to handle and shoot guns. Frank quickly learned to "shoot a snake's head off with either hand". During the next few years, Frank's days were spent helping his mother with chores and practicing shooting. With each passing year, he became faster and more accurate with his guns.

When Frank was 15, he learned of the location of one of his father's killers. After deciding it was almost time to set out on his mission, Frank wanted to make sure his shooting skills were good enough. He decided to visit Fort Gibson, a cavalry fort, to try to learn more about handling a gun. There he competed with the cavalry's best marksmen, beating them each time. After many competitions, the fort's commanding officer, Colonel Copinger gave Frank a marksmanship badge and a new name. From that day forward, Frank would be known as Pistol Pete!

BULLET

The Oklahoma State University Cowboys have many symbols of their western heritage, but none is more appropriate than their mascot, Bullet. The Spirit Rider program debuted in 1984 with the first few Spirit Riders providing their own horse to serve as mascot for the OSU Cowboys.

However, in 1988, Stars Parr Money was donated to the OSU Athletic Department to be used specifically as the mascot. Since that time, Bullet has delighted crowds with his traditional sprint across the football field following every Cowboy touchdown. The heart of the Cowboy Spirit Rider Program, Bullet is not only seen at Boone Pickens Stadium and other OSU football games, he's made appearances at local elementary schools, parades, rodeos and other special events, including the opening ceremonies of the Oklahoma State Special Olympics.

The tradition of the Spirit Rider can be attributed to the late Eddy Finley, who wanted to promote school spirit the "cowboy way," on horseback. Since that time, additional support has come for the Spirit Rider and Bullet, much of it due to Finley's hard work. A horse trailer, custom-tooled saddle and uniform dress for the Spirit Rider and ground crew have been donated to OSU. In honor of the Spirit Rider and its tradition, Jim Hamilton sculpted the Spirit Rider bronze statue that sits next to the National Wrestling Hall of Fame in Stillwater.

Remember The 4

On Nov. 17, 2011, former Cowgirl basketball head coach Kurt Budke, assistant coach Miranda Serna and OSU supporters Olin and Paula Branstetter tragically died in a plane crash in Arkansas while on a recruiting trip.

In remembrance of the quartet, a memorial resides on the northeast side of the OSU Athletics Center. The memorial is highlighted by illuminated images of the four individuals. The forms are arranged in a perfect square, symbolizing the completion of four unique lives.

In addition to an image of the individual, each lighted panel features an in memoriam script provided by the respective families. An inward-looking space with stone benches along each of the four will allow for an area of quiet reflection. As a whole, the memorial serves to honor the memory of the four and exemplify their commitment to OSU.

Jacie Hoyt

Head Coach
Third Season At OSU
Wichita State, 2009

Entering her third season in charge of the Oklahoma State women's basketball program is head coach Jacie Hoyt.

The 2023-24 campaign saw OSU produce a pair of all-conference honorees with Anna Gret Asi earning honorable mention all-league status, while Stailee Heard was named to the Big 12 All-Freshman Team.

In the classroom, Hoyt's squad produced three Academic All-Big 12 first-team picks, bringing OSU's total to seven first-team selections under her guidance.

In 2022-23, its first year under Hoyt, the Cowgirls won 21 games, matching the program's best tally ever under a first-year head coach.

OSU's total marked a 12-win improvement from the previous season and resulted in one of the 10 largest turnarounds in the nation on the year as well.

The Cowgirls navigated the non-conference portion of their schedule with a 10-2 mark before reeling off a 10-8 record in league play. OSU's six-game winning streak during league play was its longest in Big 12 action since 2016.

Among the Cowgirls' conference victories were a pair of wins over ranked opponents with OSU taking down No. 18 Baylor and No. 20 Iowa State. Additionally, the Cowgirls swept three Big 12 series on the year with sweeps of TCU, Texas Tech and Baylor. OSU's season sweep of Baylor was its first over the Bears since 2008.

Overall, the Cowgirls sported five wins over teams either ranked in the Top 25 or receiving votes in the polls.

Hoyt's squad proved formidable at home, amassing a 14-3 mark inside Gallagher-Iba Arena, its highest win total on its home floor since a 14-3 record in 2017-18.

The Cowgirls' season of success culminated with the 17th NCAA tourney berth in school history. With OSU's March Madness appearance, Hoyt became the first coach to lead the Cowgirls to the tournament in their first year at the helm.

Individually, Naomie Alnatas was tabbed as an All-Big 12 selection.

Hoyt was tabbed as the Cowgirls' head coach on March 20, 2022. She came to OSU after serving in the same capacity at Kansas City from 2017-22.

Her roots in Big 12 country run deep. Her mother, Shelly Hoyt, is a Kansas High School coaching legend and Jacie, who played for her mother in high school, went on to play collegiately at Wichita State. In addition to leading the Kansas City program, Hoyt's coaching career includes stops at Fort Hays State, Nevada and Kansas State.

Her work at Kansas City was transformational. In her five seasons at the helm of the Roos, she compiled an 81-65 overall record (55.5 percent) and a 48-31 mark in conference play (60.8 percent). For perspective, the six Kansas City coaches before her combined to go 242-437 overall (35.6 percent) and 144-215 in conference play (40.1 percent). In 2021-22, she coached the Roos to their first postseason appearance in a decade.

Hoyt led the Roos to the 2020 Western Athletic Conference regular season championship – the first in program history – and more than 20 wins in two of her final three seasons.

She was honored as the 2020 WAC Coach of the Year to become the first Kansas City coach to ever receive such an honor and her top player, Ericka Mattingly, was named WAC Player of the Year.

Despite moving to the more difficult Summit League in 2020-21, the Roos finished two spots better than predicted during their first year in the league and placed third in their second year.

In 2018-19, the Roos led the WAC and ranked 24th nationally by averaging 76.0 points per game. Making that even more remarkable is that Hoyt inherited a Kansas City program that finished seventh, eighth and fifth in the WAC in scoring offense in the three years prior to her arrival. Twice during Hoyt's tenure did Kansas City finish among the top 50 nationally in scoring offense (2018-19 and 2021-22).

A consistent trait the Roos displayed during Hoyt's time as head coach was the ability to shoot.

Her 2021-22 squad ranked in the top 30 nationally in both three-point field goal percentage and free throw percentage and her 2020-21 squad finished 17th nationally in three-point field goals made per game. Kansas City ranked 62nd or better nationally in three-point field goals made in four of her five years as head coach and in her final two seasons, ranked 37th and 28th, respectively, in three-point field goal percentage.

Another signature trait of Hoyt's Kansas City teams was sharing the ball. In four of her five seasons, the Roos ranked either first or second in the conference in assists per game, leading the league in 2018-19 and 2020-21.

She took the reins of the Kansas City program after gaining three years of Big 12 experience as an assistant coach under Jeff Mittie at Kansas State from 2014-17. Hoyt helped the Wildcats to NCAA Tournament victories in back-to-back seasons. The 2016-17 squad won 22 games overall and 11 in Big 12 play, which marked the highest totals for the program in nine seasons.

Hoyt recruited and coached seven All-Big 12 student-athletes, including two All-Defensive Team and two All-Freshman Team selections, headlined by Breanna Lewis, the 23rd pick in the 2017 WNBA Draft by the Dallas Wings.

She assisted in all facets of recruiting, scouting, game planning and on-court coaching for the Wildcats. Hoyt also coordinated and managed all areas of the elite, overnight and day camps, in addition to the High School Coaching Academy. She was a Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) 30 Under 30 honoree in 2017.

Prior to her time in Manhattan, Hoyt's first full-time Division I coaching job came at Nevada, where she was an assistant under her college coach, Jane Albright, from 2011-14.

During her time there, Nevada achieved the program's first winning season in three years in 2013-14 and set a program record with 12 victories in Mountain West Conference play. She recruited and coached four all-conference players, including Mimi Mungedi, the 2013-14 Mountain West Co-Defensive Player of the Year and 25th selection in the 2015 WNBA Draft by the Tulsa Shock.

Hoyt was a graduate assistant coach at Fort Hays State during the 2010-11 season, where she recruited and coached two All-MIAA selections. She earned a Master of Science in Communication from FHSU.

As a student-athlete at Wichita State from 2006-09, Hoyt was a team captain for Albright and started every game at point guard during her final two seasons. In 2008-09, she ranked fourth in the Missouri Valley Conference in assists. She earned the 2009 Iron Shocker Award. Hoyt was also a standout in the classroom, earning a spot on the Missouri Valley Conference, WSU Athletic Director and WSU Dean's Honor Rolls. She graduated Cum Laude with a bachelor's degree in 2009.

During her high school years, Hoyt enjoyed one of the most prolific scoring careers in Kansas prep history, finishing with 2,016 points in only three seasons at Hoxie (Kan.) HS. Her career average of 26.6 points per game ranks sixth in state history. As a senior, she averaged 28.4 points, 7.4 assists, 6.3 rebounds and 6.1 steals per game. She was a three-time all-state performer in basketball and volleyball and was also a state champion in multiple track events.

Hoyt comes from a family of educators. She is the daughter of Kansas high school coaching legend Shelly Hoyt, who at one point led Hoxie HS to a state record 107 straight wins and four consecutive state titles. Her mother is currently the head coach at Eureka (Kan.) HS. Her father, Scott, is the superintendent in Eureka and two of her sisters, Tabitha and Corinna, are teachers. A third sister, Terran, served as a graduate assistant on Jacie's staff at Kansas City.

She is married to Daniel Heflin.

Entering her third season with the Cowgirl basketball program is Jhasmin Player, who serves as the Cowgirls' associate head coach.

In her first season in Stillwater, Player helped guide OSU to a 20-win campaign and a return to the NCAA Tournament.

"She is the exact type of person and coach I want by my side to help lead Cowgirl basketball to be the national powerhouse I know it can be," OSU head coach Jacie Hoyt said.

"Not only was she a great player she is a proven recruiter and coach. She will allow us to recruit top talent both nationally and internationally, but she brings so much more than her recruiting ability to our program. She has a great mind for the game, passion for molding young women's lives and represents all the things I want Cowgirl basketball to stand for."

Player came to Stillwater after spending last season as a member of the SMU coaching staff where she helped the Mustangs to a WNIT berth.

Prior to her stop in Dallas, Player served two seasons as an assistant coach for Kansas, working for the Jayhawks from 2019-2021. Additionally, she spent the 2018-19 campaign as a member of the staff at Loyola Marymount, helping the program to its first postseason appearance since 2001 with the Lions earning a WNIT bid.

Player enjoyed a pair of stints at the University of Maine, helping the Black Bears to the conference championship game in 2017 and 2018. Her final season with the program resulted in a 23-10 mark and an America East title, leading to the program's first NCAA tournament appearance since 2004. Four players earned all-conference status during that span. She also spent the 2011-12 and 2012-13 campaigns on staff as well.

A native of Bay City, Texas, Player competed for five seasons professionally in Europe, spending time in Portugal, Spain and Poland. She averaged 39.9 points a game during the 2014 campaign. Additionally, she spent one season with the WNBA's Atlanta Dream.

A 2009 graduate of Baylor, Player earned her degree in speech communication where she was a four-year standout for the Lady Bears, serving as team captain her final two years. She helped guide Baylor to four NCAA tournaments as well as the 2009 Big 12 tournament title. She was named to the Big 12 Championship All-Tournament Team following the Lady Bears' victory over Texas A&M.

Player received honorable mention all-league recognition on two occasions and was named to the Big 12 All-Defensive Team in 2007.

Ashley Davis

Assistant Coach
Second Season At OSU
TCU, 2005

A familiar face made her return to the Cowgirl program prior to the 2023-24 season as assistant coach Ashley Davis found her way back to Stillwater as a member of head coach Jacie Hoyt's coaching staff.

"Ashley was the perfect addition to round out our coaching staff. She did a great job in her previous stop here," Hoyt said. "She has tremendous experience in the Big 12 as well as recruiting at the absolute highest level the last couple years. I am positive that her experience paired with her passion for Oklahoma State athletics will help take us to new levels."

A member of the staff at OSU for six seasons previously, Davis rejoined the Cowgirl program after spending two seasons (2021-22 and 2022-23) as an assistant at Arizona. During her second season, she helped the Wildcats to their third consecutive NCAA Tournament berth and the program's fifth consecutive 20-win season. Arizona was ranked for the entirety of the year, climbing as high as No. 12.

The Wildcats eclipsed the 20-win mark during her first season in Tucson, while hosting and playing in the NCAA Tournament at home for the first time since 1998.

Davis' first stint in Stillwater concluded in the second round of the 2021 NCAA Tournament and saw Natasha Mack become the program's most recent WNBA Draft pick as well as the WBCA and Naismith Defensive Player of the Year.

During her six seasons at OSU, the Cowgirls earned three NCAA bids and one WNIT berth. She helped coach four All-Americans, five All-Big 12 selections, three WNBA Draft picks and five 1,000-point scorers during her time in Stillwater.

Prior to her arrival at OSU, Davis coached at North Texas for two seasons, serving as the program's associate head coach for the 2014-15 season.

She was also an assistant coach for four seasons at Georgetown and helped the Hoyas to 20-win seasons in all four years. During her time with the program, Georgetown made three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, including a Sweet 16 berth in 2011, and reached the quarterfinals of the WNIT in 2009.

A native of San Antonio, Texas, Davis was a four-year letterwinner at TCU and was twice named an all-conference selection. She graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration in 2005 and received her master's in educational administration in 2007.

"I could not be more excited to have Kelby as a member of our staff. He is incredibly dynamic and I know his impact will be felt immediately as a recruiter. He has a unique ability to connect with people and he's a relentless worker," Cowgirl head coach Jacie Hoyt said.

"It is important for me that our players know their coaches care for them both on and off the court, and I love his passion to do so. He is a perfect fit in every area."

Jones spent the 2022-23 campaign as a member of the staff at Mississippi State as the program's director of scouting and analytics, helping the Bulldogs to a 22-11 mark and a pair of NCAA tournament victories. The NCAA berth was MSU's first since 2019.

Prior to his arrival in Starkville, he spent two seasons as an assistant coach at the University of North Texas. During his time in Denton, he served as the program's recruiting coordinator.

Jones helped guide UNT to a 17-win campaign and a WNIT appearance in 2021-22. Additionally, he helped coach a pair of players to All-Conference USA honors.

Prior to the return to his alma mater, Jones worked for the University of Texas in various capacities. He started as a graduate assistant in 2016 with the Longhorns and was promoted to the team's video coordinator in 2018 after receiving his master's degree in physical education in 2018.

In August of 2019, he took on the role of director of analytics for the program.

Jones earned his degree in kinesiology from North Texas in 2016 and spent four years as the director of managerial operations during his time as a student at UNT. He worked as the team's head manager and was promoted to the program's interim director of basketball operations during his senior year. Second Season At OSU

Kansas City, 2017

Oklahoma State's women's basketball team added Sierra Bone to its staff as its director of branding and player influence for the 2023-24 campaign.

"I want our athletes and recruits to know how serious we are about investing in them in this era of NIL. I am thrilled to have Sierra and the skill set she brings as a part of our program. She played for me on my first team at Kansas City and we have shared a special bond ever since," Cowgirl head coach Jacie Hoyt said.

"We want our players to have every resource possible when it comes to capitalizing on their name, image and likeness and Sierra is going to aid tremendously in that. She understands how to maximize branding opportunities, and I'm glad our players will have her to help manage all that comes with the success they will have as a team and individually."

The win marked the 17th is OSU's last 18 season openers and is their second in as many meetings against the Cougars. They also scored 100 points for the first time since a home game against Oral Roberts early last season.

The Cowgirls put six players in double figures, with Anna Gret Asi leading the way with 20. Freshman Stailee Heard had an impressive collegiate debut, finishing with 18 points and 10 rebounds.

Lior Garzon scored 17 points in 31 minutes to open her second season at OSU. She also surpassed 1,000 points for her career, getting loose for a layup in the third quarter to hit the milestone.

Oklahoma State wasted no time in taking a double-figure lead, scoring 21 points before the halfway point in the first quarter. They would finish the quarter leading 29-14, getting a pull-up jump shot and two free throws from Heard in the final minutes of the period.

The Cowgirls kept their foot on the gas to open the second quarter, going on an 12-2 run to open the period. Quincy Noble got the run started with an and-one before Asi was fouled on a three-point attempt, making all three free throws. OSU would take a 54-32 advantage to the halftime locker room.

With the Cowgirls leading 77-47, the game continued into the fourth quarter, where OSU swiftly went on an 18-2 run. Kennedy Fauntleroy contributed seven of the 18 points on the run while Lior Garzon hit a transition three to close it out. Oklahoma State closed out the win, 100-59.

STILLWATER – Oklahoma State's women's basketball team used a big fourth quarter to get a win over New Orleans, 74-66, and improve to 2-0 on the young season.

The Cowgirls outscored the Privateers 19-11 in the final period while holding their opponent to 4-11 shooting and forcing them into six turnovers in the final quarter.

Oklahoma State once again got a balanced scoring effort, with freshman Stailee Heard leading the way with 15 points in 28 minutes. Rylee Langerman finished with 14, and Anna Gret Asi and Chandler Prater had 12 each to round out the Cowgirls in double figures.

The teams traded baskets to open the second before Oklahoma State went on an 11-0 run spanning over two minutes. Prater score twice in the lane while Langerman scored five points during the stretch, including a triple to cap it off. New Orleans answered, however, as the teams drew even heading to the halftime locker room at 41 apiece.

In the third, the Cowgirls put together another big run, this time scoring nine straight. Heard was responsible for the first seven, including converting an and-one, and Langerman had a fast-break layup to finish off the run. The Privateers immediately answered with a 10-0 run of their own, and the teams remained in a stalemate, heading to the final quarter tied at 55.

The final quarter began with the teams going back and forth until OSU scored eight-straight points midway through the period. The Cowgirls fended off a New Orleans run to hang on for a 74-66 win.

GAME 11

ST. GEORGE, Utah – Oklahoma State's women's basketball team saw its five-game win streak come to an end at the hands of Oregon, 70-63, Thursday afternoon in St. George, Utah.

Stailee Heard led all scorers with 23 points, setting a new career high, while grabbing eight rebounds. The freshman was the only Cowgirl to finish in double figures.

Oklahoma State struggled to score early in the game, managing just two points until the 3:34 mark of the first quarter. The Cowgirls scored six points in the remainder of the period but would end the frame trailing 16-8.

The second quarter began with another run by the Ducks, culminating in their largest lead of the half at 26-11. The Cowgirls responded, however, going on a 10-0 run to get back into the ballgame and would head into the half down by eight.

Oregon took control of the game once again to open the second half, going up by 17 midway through the third quarter. OSU once again put together a run, though, beating the Ducks 14-3 to close the period, with back-to-back threes from Lior Garzon giving the Cowgirls momentum heading into the fourth.

The final frame was close throughout, with OSU even managing to tie the game at 62 on a Praise Egharevba basket with 3:22 to go. Oregon would score the next six points, however, while the Cowgirls could manage only a free throw in the remainder of the game as they fell to the Ducks, 70-63.

GAME 12

STILLWATER – In its return from the holiday break, Oklahoma State's women's basketball team fell to Iowa State, 76-68, in its conference opener Saturday afternoon in Gallagher-Iba Arena.

Anna Gret Asi posted a career-high 27 points, with 19 coming in a second-half comeback effort. Stailee Heard finished with 13 points and Hannah Gusters had 12.

OSU jumped out to a seven-point lead in the opening minutes of the game, getting back-to-back threes from Heard early on. The Cyclones responded with a 15-5 run to close the first quarter, taking a 21-18 lead.

The second quarter played even, with Quincy Noble scoring six points early in the frame. Gusters hit a pair of mid-range jump shots and Lior Garzon buried a triple near the end of the period as the Cowgirls trailed by two entering the halftime break.

Iowa State outscored OSU 19-9 in the third quarter as the Cyclones shot 68% from the field and 63% from three in the period. The Cowgirls would head into the fourth quarter trailing 59-47.

Oklahoma State opened the final period by going on a 10-3 run to get back into the game. The teams would trade baskets the rest of the way, however, and the Cowgirls' comeback effort would come up short despite 14 fourth-quarter points from Asi.

OSU shot 7-14 from three in a competitive first half but would come out of the half shooting just 3-14 from behind the arc the rest of the way. The Cyclones also out-rebounded the Cowgirls 48-21.

ORLANDO, Fla. – Behind double-figure scoring efforts from all five of its starters, Oklahoma State's women's basketball team beat UCF, 68-61, Wednesday night in Orlando, Florida.

All but one OSU point came from its starters, with Anna Gret Asi leading the way with 16. Stailee Heard finished with 14 points, Lior Garzon scored 13 and Quincy Noble and Hannah Gusters had 12 apiece.

Oklahoma State held UCF to 40% shooting from the field and forced the Knights into 19 turnovers, which the Cowgirls converted into 14 points. OSU also outscored UCF by 10 points in the paint.

Both teams struggled to find a rhythm early on, as neither team broke into double figures on the scoreboard until a Garzon triple went down for the Cowgirls with 1:22 to go in the first quarter. OSU took a 14-11 lead into the second quarter thanks to an Asi three with five seconds remaining in the period.

In the second quarter, scoring continued to be hard to come by for both teams. Neither team shot better than 33.3% in the first half, but the Cowgirls made three more three-pointers than the Knights, contributing to a 26-22 OSU halftime advantage.

Coming out of the half, both teams played much better offensively, leading to runs by each side. The Knights went on a 7-0 run early in the frame before the Cowgirls put together an 8-0 run of their own to answer. OSU would take a 42-40 lead into the fourth behind a 6-12 shooting third quarter.

In the final period, the teams swapped the lead several times before the Cowgirls went on a 7-0 run with 3:16 remining in the game. UCF couldn't muster a run to answer, and Oklahoma State got the win, 68-61.

GAME 14

FORT WORTH, Texas – A hounding defensive effort propelled Oklahoma State's women's basketball team to a 67-59 road win over No. 23 TCU in Fort Worth, Texas, on Saturday evening.

The Cowgirls held the Horned Frogs to 30% shooting from the field and 26% from three while out-rebounding them 44-33 and outscoring them in the paint 38-12.

Praise Egharevba had a career-best game for Oklahoma State, finishing with 14 points and seven rebounds in 22 minutes off the bench. Stailee Heard added 11 points, six rebounds and six assists, while Quincy Noble had 11 points and Lior Garzon posted 10.

OSU took control of the game early, putting together an 8-0 run behind threes from Anna Gret Asi and Noble to take an 11-4 lead midway through the first quarter.

Oklahoma State continued to add to its lead throughout the second quarter, getting six straight points from Rylee Langerman late in the period before Noble got free for a layup just before the halftime break.

TCU trailed at the half for the first time this season as the Cowgirls led 39-25. OSU held the Horned Frogs to just 27% shooting in the first half and outscored them by 20 in the paint.

The Horned Frogs wouldn't go quietly, however, as they held OSU to just 10 points in the third quarter, six of which coming from Egharevba. TCU closed the gap to 49-45 heading to the final frame.

In the fourth quarter, the teams traded baskets early before the Cowgirls went on a 7-0 run with 7:01 to play to take an 11-point lead. OSU would handle heavy TCU pressure for the remainder of the game to win 67-59.

GAME 15

STILLWATER – Oklahoma State's women's basketball team earned its third-straight conference win with a 71-58 victory over Texas Tech Wednesday night in Stillwater.

Hannah Gusters led all scorers with 19 points on 8-11 shooting, with 15 coming in the second half. Stailee Heard finished with 12 points while Lior Garzon added 11 and Quincy Noble had 10.

Oklahoma State opened the game with impressive effort on the defensive end, holding the Lady Raiders to four points on 2-14 shooting in the first quarter.

OSU continued to add to its lead in the second, putting up 23 points in the quarter. All seven Cowgirls who saw the floor in the quarter scored, including six from Praise Egharevba off the bench.

At the half, Oklahoma State led 36-20 while outscoring the Lady Raiders 17-0 off turnovers. The Cowgirls also hit six of 14 three pointers and scored 10 points in transition.

In the third, Texas Tech found a 10-0 run midway through the period to cut the OSU lead to seven. Three pointers from Heard and Asi in the final minutes of the quarter extended the Cowgirl lead back to 11 heading to the fourth.

Oklahoma State thrashed any hope of a Red Raider comeback with an 8-0 run early in the fourth quarter. The cushion generated by the run would be enough the rest of the way as the Cowgirls secured the 71-58 win.

GAME 19

CINCINNATI, Ohio – A costly turnover down the stretch cost Oklahoma State's women's basketball team in its 58-56 road loss to Cincinnati Wednesday night.

Oklahoma State shot just 34% from the field and 29% from three, but the Cowgirls were able to hold Cincinnati to 33% from the field and 31% from three to keep the game close.

Stailee Heard led all scorers, pairing 14 points will 11 rebounds to secure her second career double double. Hannah Gusters added 13 points and seven rebounds while Anna Gret Asi posted 12 points and five assists.

The Cowgirls struggled offensively from the tip, managing only nine points in the opening quarter, with eight coming from Heard. The Bearcats would take a 12-9 advantage into the second.

OSU opened the second quarter on a 9-1 run, getting three baskets inside from Gusters and three more points at the free throw line from Heard and Quincy Noble. Cincinnati responded with a 15-3 run of their own and would take a 30-25 lead into the halftime break.

Oklahoma State once again put together a run to open a quarter, this time going on a 12-2 run to begin the third. The Cowgirls got to the free throw line 10 times, making seven, in the period and sent the game into the fourth tied at 42.

In the fourth, OSU made three field goals in the first 4:10 quarter, with all of them being triples from Asi. The Cowgirls would have a chance to take the lead in the final seconds, but a Malea Williams steal and layup sealed the Cincinnati win.

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) — Dre'Una Edwards had 16 points, Bella Fontleroy came off the bench to score 15 and No. 13 Baylor overcame a slow start to beat Oklahoma State 72-60 on Sunday.

Darianna Littlepage-Buggs and Sarah Andrews added 11 points apiece for Baylor, which entered play having lost three of its last four games. Aijha Blackwell had 19 rebounds to go with seven points as the Bears outrebounded the Cowgirls 45-29. Blackwell had seven of Baylor's 16 rebounds at the offensive end. She needs 15 more rebounds to top 1,000 for her career.

Both team had five turnovers in the first five minutes. Baylor missed four straight shots and Oklahoma State combined 3-pointers by Asi and Lior Garzon with two Gusters layups to grab a 10-4 lead. Gusters added another layup with 3 seconds left and the Cowgirls led 19-12 after one quarter.

Baylor battled back and grabbed a 28-27 lead on a layup by Yaya Felder with 1:36 left in the second period. Asi sank the second of two free throws with 43 seconds remaining to knot the score at 28, but Andrews answered with a 3-pointer and the Bears took a three-point lead into halftime.

Blackwell and Littlepage-Buggs had the only baskets in the first 3:08 of the third quarter to push the Bears' lead to seven. Oklahoma State's first points came on a jumper by Stailee Heard at the 5:49 mark. Felder's three-point play gave Baylor its first double-digit lead at 42-32 and it grew to 53-41 heading to the final period.

Oklahoma State closed within 10 points three times in the fourth quarter but could not get its deficit in the single digits.

AMES, Iowa – Oklahoma State's women's basketball team suffered its fourth-straight loss on Wednesday night when it fell to Iowa State, 78-67, in Ames, Iowa.

The Cowgirls fall to 11-10 on the season and 4-6 in conference play in the loss. They'll now look ahead to the first round of Bedlam on Saturday at 4 p.m. at Gallagher-Iba Arena.

Quincy Noble led OSU with 24 points and six rebounds. Anna Gret Asi scored 13, with 10 coming in the second half, to go with seven assists, and Rylee Langerman finished with 12 off the bench.

Oklahoma State struggled to score early, failing to find its first basket until the 6:19 mark of the first quarter. The Cowgirls would find a rhythm, however, going on an 11-3 run to close the gap to five entering the second.

The second quarter played nearly even, with both teams struggling from the field. Noble, Asi and Langerman all buried triples in the period, but the Cowgirls trailed 32-28 at the half.

In the third, OSU opened the quarter with a 7-2 run, taking its first lead of the game on an Asi layup. The Cowgirls would later take a five-point lead on an Asi three pointer, but Iowa State responded with a 10-0 run to take a 52-47 lead into the fourth.

The Cyclones stifled any chance at an Oklahoma State comeback by scoring 26 points in the fourth quarter, shooting 68.8% from the field and 50% from three to close out the 78-67 win.

GAME 23

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) -- Brylee Glenn scored 23 points, Serena Sundell drove for the go-ahead layup with 26 seconds to go, and eighth-ranked Kansas State held on as Oklahoma State missed the final shot for a 69-68 victory on Saturday.

Sundell finished with 17 points and seven assists, while Gabby Gregory had 11 points and Zyanna Walker 10 for the Wildcats (21-3, 10-2 Big 12), who were coming off back-to-back road losses and picked up their 15th consecutive win at home.

Oklahoma State (11-12, 4-8) led by as many as seven in the second half before the Wildcats came charging back, trimming their deficit to 68-67 with less than a minute to go. Anna Gret Asi missed a jumper with a chance to extend the Cowgirls' lead, and at the other end, Sundell drove baseline against Hannah Gusters and got the tough layup.

The Cowgirls played for the final shot, but Gusters got flummoxed as time ticked away and missed badly from about 10 feet.

Quincy Noble had 19 points, eight rebounds and seven assists for Oklahoma State. Stailee Heard added 19 points and 12 rebounds, while Lior Garzon finished with 14 points and Gusters had 13.

GAME 26

STILLWATER – Oklahoma State's women's basketball team got back in the win column, beating UCF on Wednesday night at Gallagher-Iba Arena, 67-54.

Hannah Gusters and Stailee Heard led OSU with 17 points each. Lior Garzon also added 14 points, five rebounds and five assists for the Cowgirls in 37 minutes.

A high scoring first quarter played back-and-forth, with UCF using a 7-0 run late in the frame to gain an early advantage. The Cowgirls battled back, getting a triple from Garzon in the final minute of the period to take an 18-17 lead.

In the second, OSU used a zone defense to hold the Knights to just 10 points and would take a 37-27 lead into the break. Gusters had 12 points and Heard had 11 at the half.

Oklahoma State opened the third quarter on a 16-2 run to take full command of the game. UCF would score the final seven of the period, but the Cowgirls led 53-36 heading to the fourth.

The Knights faired a little better against the Cowgirls' zone in the fourth quarter, but it wouldn't matter as Oklahoma State closed out the 67-54 victory.

OSU finished the game with 20 assists on 27 made baskets while shooting 46% from the field. The Cowgirls also made twice as many threes (8) as the Knights and forced UCF into 19 turnovers in the contest.

STILLWATER – Oklahoma State's women's basketball team beat No. 25 West Virginia, 68-61, Tuesday night at Gallagher-Iba Arena.

Anna Gret Asi led all scorers with 22 points to go with six assists. Senior Quincy Noble added 15 points and seven rebounds while Hannah Gusters scored 13.

Oklahoma State shot 49% from the field while holding the Mountaineers to just 38% shooting and 23% from three. The Cowgirls also logged 17 assists on 24 made baskets and led for all but 1:58 of game time.

The first quarter played close, with each team searching for rhythm on the offensive end. OSU would find it first, putting together a 6-0 run to close the quarter and take a 16-12 lead to the second.

The teams went back to trading baskets in the second until the Cowgirls found another 6-0 run midway through the period. A three-quarter-court heave from Asi would find the bottom of the net as time expired to send OSU into the half with a 35-26 advantage.

The third quarter saw an uptick in offense on each side, with Oklahoma State outscoring West Virginia 24-22 in the frame. Jorda Harrison would score 13 of her 22 in the period for the Mountaineers, but the Cowgirls managed to fend off any runs to take an 11-point lead to the fourth.

West Virginia turned up the full-court pressure in the fourth quarter, forcing OSU into nine turnovers in the frame. It wouldn't matter though as the Mountaineers were held to just 13 points in the final quarter as the Cowgirls polished off the 68-61 victory.

It did not take Brittney Martin long to etch her name into the Cowgirl record books as one of the most well-rounded players in program history. As a freshman, Martin became the first player in program history to record a triple-double. Following her freshman campaign, she was invited to compete at the USA Basketball U19 World Championship Team trials and was named a third-team Freshman All-American. One of the most explosive athletes to ever don a Cowgirl uniform, Young became the 19th Cowgirl to eclipse the 1,000-point mark. She achieved the feat during a junior campaign in which she earned MVP honors while helping OSU to the WNIT title. The Del City, Okla., native also became just the second player in school history to score 1,000 points, grab 700 rebounds and block 100 shots during her career. With the ability to dunk a basketball with two hands, Young took her athleticism to the OSU track and field squad as a junior, competing in the high jump. During her first collegiate stint in the sport, Young earned All-America status as well as a berth at the U.S. Olympic Trials where she competed for a spot on the American squad for the London Games. In 2013, Young became the second Cowgirl taken in the WNBA Draft, going in the first round to New York.
